KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS
IN SERVICE TO ONE. IN SERVICE TO ALL.

The Knights of Columbus, the world's largest Catholic men's fraternal organization, has a new online membership program in New York State for Catholic men aged 18 and up knights.net Now busy family men and professionals can gain immediate access to the same fraternal benefits as traditional members without having to make a time commitment to a local council. Should they prefer, men of St. Anthony of Padua parish are welcome to join any one of the local Knights of Columbus councils in Harrison, White Plains and other nearby towns.

Becoming a member of the Knights of Columbus can transform a man's life. We are a band of brothers, a network of solid Catholic gentlemen brought together for service to God and our neighbors. It enhances spiritual growth and provides opportunities to give back to the parish and community. Members also have exclusive access to the top rated Knights of Columbus insurance program to protect their families at all stages of life. For more information contact:

We pray for all of our sick and homebound parishioners especially, Elizabeth Cusack, Tom Tropea, Michael Carr, Jane Lantier, Teddy Malasky and Stephanie Sacurato. May our support and care bring them restoration of health.

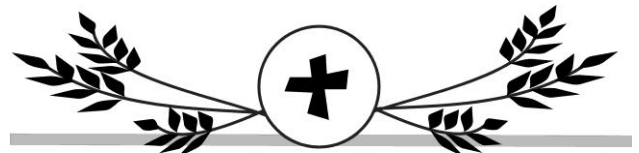

“Therefore, we aspire to please him, whether we are at home or away. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil.”

In recent years we have heard calls for transparency and accountability. Whether in politics, the corporate world or the church, demands are being made on the activities of others. Judgments follow. The television is filled with many court room cases being exposed and decisions made – guilty, not guilty, fines and recompense. It all makes for good entertainment. But it is more serious than that.

St. Paul reminds us that we all will experience the same accountability for reward or punishment. Sometimes we try to avoid finding ourselves as the subject of such scrutiny, yet it is only as a result of our goodness, our prayer life, our service to others, that the reward will come.

For many, it is quite convenient to pass over the idea of judgment. Maybe we should spend a moment to judge ourselves, ask forgiveness and reap the reward. Remember Matthew 25, ‘Come blessed of my Father inherit the kingdom prepared for you...’

Father Chris

THE TIME IS RIGHT FOR THE HARVEST

First Reading: Ezekiel 17:22-24

God will restore the kingdom of Judah, as symbolized by the cedar. The deed is emphasized by the words, “As I, the Lord have spoken, so will I do.”

Second Reading: II Corinthians 5:6-10

Paul acknowledges “that we are, in a sense, away from the Lord while in this life and bound to our bodies.” We will be fully united with God in the next life, if we please him in this life.

Gospel: Mark 4:26-34

The reign of God is compared to a mustard seed which is the smallest of seeds yet grows to become the largest of shrubs. Similarly, God’s community grows gradually until it becomes large and strong.
