At the Parish Brainstorming meetings in the fall, several people suggested that we consider having greeters at weekend Masses, and establishing a Welcoming Committee to offer hospitality to newcomers to the parish. If you might be interested in serving as a Greeter/Usher (both men and women are eligible) or as a member of a Welcoming Committee, please contact the Parish Office and leave your name and contact information. We are planning to have a meeting to discuss these ministries in April sometime after Easter Sunday. If you have any questions meantime, please contact Rocco Magnotta at 914-391-6494 or at ramwpony@aol.com.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

“There was a time when you were in darkness but now you are light in the Lord. Well, then, live as children of light. Light produces every kind of goodness, and justice and truth.... Then he told him, ‘Go wash in the pool of Siloam.’ (This name means ‘One who has been sent.’”)

With the coming of spring, days become longer and darkness fades. St. Paul tells his readers that they are children of the light. Jesus told us we are the light of the world. We recognize our role through our good works, our efforts to make a just society, and walking with Jesus who is the way, truth and life.

How common it is for us to look for a place to charge our telephones, renew the power in our ipads, or charge our battery. Sadly people fight to plug their charger and renew their telephone, computer or game. Lent is to produce the same effect. The light can become stronger as we strive for goodness, justice and truth. Lent is meant to restore power, or grace, fully. Lent is our opportunity to be and remain connected. We are to be charged by the Lord and radiate His presence.

Father Chris

We pray for all of our sick and homebound parishioners especially Angela Villalba, Louis Petrulo, Niall Murray, James Gerard Daly, Dan Bailey, Jack Klein, Sister Monica Quigley, Elizabeth Cusack, Anthony DellaValle, Stephanie Sacurato, and Carmella Rocco. May our support and care bring them restoration of health.

We extend our prayers and sincere condolences to the family members and friends of Cardinal William H. Keeler, Olga B. Marucci, Gloria Miller and Theodore Gerstle who passed away recently. May they rest in peace. Amen.

O God

I believe

First Reading: 1 Samuel 16:1b, 6-7, 10-13a

In seeking a King for the Israelites, Samuel traveled to Jesse of Bethlehem, who had seven sons. Commanded by God to ignore the elder sons, Samuel anointed the youngest, David.

Second Reading: Ephesians 5:8-14

Paul exhorts the Ephesians to live as “children of light” in goodness and truth and to avoid evil deeds “done in darkness.”

Gospel: John 9:1-41

Jesus performs the miracle of giving sight to the man born blind. Because Jesus performed this miracle on the Sabbath, the Pharisees called him a “sinner,” but the blind man said, “He is a prophet.” Jesus later reveals to the blind man that He is the Son of Man.
