BLUE MASS THANK YOU!

Thanks to everyone who was in attendance at the 10th Annual Blue Mass last Monday night. We were honored to have Bishop Dominick Lagonegro as the Celebrant and Homilist and we were excited by the large number of service members from the Police, Fire and EMS Departments as well as so many Military men and women and Veterans who were here as well. Thanks to EVERYONE who had any part in making the evening so special and memorable for all of us!

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

“Jesus raised his eyes to heaven and said, “Father the hour has come. Give glory to your son so that your son may glorify you, just as you gave him authority over all people, so that your son may give eternal life to all you gave him. Now this is eternal life, that they should know you, the only true God and the one you have sent, Jesus Christ...I pray for them.”

Gifts are given. One considers who the receiver is and what that person might like or need. After deliberating a choice is made and the gift is offered.

Gifts are received. One opens his hands to receive them and gratefully accept what has been chosen.

The greatest gift ever is the gift of eternal life. By His dying and rising, Jesus wanted to give us this gift. We call it grace, the very life of God, communicated to us freely by Him and accepted. As we reflect upon this awesome care of God for us, at this very moment, we do not need to send a thank you note, but prayerfully take, protect and guard this incredible treasure which has been given freely to us.

May our response be our fervent prayers of thanks to Him.

Father Chris

We pray for all of our sick and homebound parishioners especially, Angela Villalba, Louis Petrulo, Niall Murray, James Gerard Daly, Dan Bailey, Jack Klein, Sister Monica Quigley, Elizabeth Cusack, Anthony DellaValle, Tom Tropea, Michael Carr, Mark Broadway and Joel Berlin. May our support and care bring them restoration of health.

Welcome back Fr. Fidelis and Fr. Pete

We are happy that Father Fidelis will return to be with us next Thursday, June 8th for a summer visit. He will remain until late August. Father Fidelis, as you may recall, visited us for a few weeks this past winter. We look forward to welcoming Father Fidelis back to Saint Anthony's again and look forward to his presence with us. Also, we expect Father Pete to return on Tuesday June 20th for his usual visit probably until sometime in October. We look forward to seeing both Father Pete and Father Fidelis very soon!

GLORIFIED ON EARTH

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 1:12-14

After Jesus ascended into heaven, the eleven apostles returned to Jerusalem and prayed in the upstairs room. With them were some women and Mary, the mother of Jesus.

Second Reading: 1 Peter 4:13-16

Christians are exhorted to rejoice in suffering because through suffering, they share in the life of Christ.

Gospel: John 17:1-11a

This is a continuation of Jesus' prayer at the Last Supper. He tells the Father that he has made his name known, that he has finished the work his Father has given him, and that he wishes now to share in the glory at his side.
