FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

“Beloved: If you are patient when you suffer for doing what is good, this is a grace before God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example that you should follow in his footsteps. When he was insulted, he returned no insult, when he suffered he did not threaten, instead he handed himself over to the one who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, so that free from sin, we might live for righteousness”

Risen Lord, to unite themselves to Jesus and His cross. We move a few weeks from Easter and can forget that the cross of Christ is the measure of the world.

How do we react to adversity? Revenge, road rage, doing unto others before they do unto me... it is easy to avoid the admonition of Peter. To be sure we're on the right path we look to the virtues found in the beatitudes - meekness, humility, desire for holiness, dependence upon God, and yes even the suffering we endure. Together with the virtues which Paul offered the Galatians, we become fully equipped to move forward.

Father Chris

We pray for all of our sick and homebound parishioners especially, Angela Villalba, Louis Petrulo, Niall Murray, James Gerard Daly, Dan Bailey, Jack Klein, Sister Monica Quigley, Elizabeth Cusack, Anthony DellaValle, and Carmella Rocco. May our support and care bring them restoration of health.

We extend our prayers and sincere condolences to the family members and friends of Filippo Buffone who passed away recently. May he rest in peace. Amen.

We congratulate and welcome to the Catholic faith Landon Timothy Broderick who was recently baptized here at Saint Anthony of Padua Church. God bless them and their families.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 2:14a, 36-41

With great authority, Peter proclaims to the people that the Christ who was crucified is indeed the Messiah. Urging them to reform and be baptized in the name of Christ, three thousand responded to his words and were baptized.

Second Reading: 1 Peter 2:20b-25

This is a strong exhortation from Peter to the people to endure suffering for Christ as he did for them. Healed by his wounds, they have “returned to the shepherd.”

Gospel: John 10:1-10

Christ uses the beautiful image of the shepherd to describe his care for his sheep. He also says he is the sheeppate and promises that “Whoever enters through me will be safe.”
